SEE THE WORLD, ALL OF IT / +

FREEDOM IS JOY

Everyone should get to make the choices they want. Oppression and control are obscene.

COMPANIONS MAKE THE JOURNEY

Just because you can do what you want, doesn't mean you should do it alone.

KARMA LIKES THE HELP

Everyone makes choices. Sometimes the universe needs a little nudge when it comes to the delivering the consequences, good or bad.

SHAPESHIFT

- HEART'S BLOOD You can take the form of any beast whose heart you have eaten.
- FIRST TIME'S THE CHARM The first time you ever lay eyes upon another being, you can immediately copy their shape. This does not add it to your shape library, the form only lasts one scene before starting to go wrong, and you cannot reassume it afterwards without learning it normally. This ability only works on humans and other species for which you already have another example in your shape library.
- FINDING THE SPIRIT'S SHAPE Your True Forms are human, fennec, and fennec-human hybrid.
- DEADLY BEAST TRANSFORMATION When in hybrid fennec-human form, you may include any number of Charms powers in a roll.
- SPITFIRE You can make ranged attacks by spitting flaming projectiles. People find this very surprising, but you had to learn to do it after a terrible pun involving "firefox".
- MOONSILVER TATTOOS Spend a  to ignore stress or complications from an attack including the Transmutation power or Wyld-based hazards.

CHARMS

ENHANCED CHARISMA

ENHANCED REFLEXES

ENHANCED SPEED

ENHANCED STRENGTH

- EXHAUSTED Shutdown any Charms power to gain a . Activate a spoiler to recover the power, or recover for free during the next transition scene.

PANOPLY

THE FLAMING BLADE

A moonsilver daiklave with swirls of red jade embedded throughout, capable of igniting on command.

CONNECTIONS

You have friends absolutely everywhere.

LUCK

You really are just stupidly lucky.
